

HOLLAND
FILM MEETING

NETHERLANDS
PRODUCTION
PLATFORM

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES EXTENDED UNTIL JUNE 30

13th Netherlands Production Platform

September 22 to 25, 2011
Utrecht, The Netherlands

The Holland Film Meeting (HFM) is the international heartbeat of the Netherlands Film Festival, providing a series of business-oriented events for the international professionals in attendance. The HFM consists of the Benelux Screenings, the Netherlands Production Platform (NPP), professional workshops and panels, the Cinema Militants Programme and the Binger-Screen International Interview. The focus this year will be Scandinavia.

The NPP presents a maximum of 25 Dutch and European new film projects to a selected group of European and Dutch industry professionals with the aim to encourage co-production and/or collaboration between the Netherlands and other countries. The participating international and Dutch professionals cover the areas of production, sales, financing, distribution and funding.

Essential elements in the presentation sessions are assessment of each story, international appeal and market potential. The 4-day event, which includes public presentations and individual meetings, also offers ample opportunity to get acquainted with the Dutch film industry and its players.

Project requirements:

- Feature length films: drama, animation and/or documentary projects with a minimum duration of 90 minutes;
- Suitable for co-production;
- Local financial support must be in place;

Project submission by email:

- Only fully completed forms will be taken into consideration;
- Production company profile;
- Director's profile;
- Director's statement;
- Synopsis;
- Treatment (if available);
- Financial plan.

Conditions:

- There is no entry fee for applications;
- Once a project has been selected, a maximum of 2 representatives should be present during the 4 days of the Platform;
- The Holland Film Meeting requires the Netherlands Production Platform logo to be included in the credits of the finalized film. The NPP logo shall be sent upon request.

In case of selection the director/writer and producer will be invited with a maximum of 2 persons per project. The invitation includes 3 nights hotel, travel expenses (economy class) and access to all festival events.
